

M. Jane Williams Professional Development Award

In memory and honor of Principal M. Jane Williams, Schultz & Williams and the AFP-Greater Philadelphia Chapter (AFP-GPC) have established the M. Jane Williams Professional Development Award. President L. Scott Schultz unveiled the Award at AFP-GPC's 2018 National Philanthropy Day Ceremony.

Jane Williams, 1943-2018

The Award will be granted annually by AFP-GPC to mid-career fundraising professionals who need support to access advanced training, professional conferences, certification programs or other specialized development activities.

We are proud to open the Fund to the participation of Jane's friends, colleagues and the community of fundraisers touched by her leadership. An anonymous donor will match new gifts to the Fund up to $15,000, further leveraging your support.

We invite all who wish to honor Jane's work and memory to join us in supporting the M. Jane Williams Professional Development Award!

For credit card payments of $25 or more:

Go to: *The Philadelphia Foundation Website at <https://www.philafound.org/give-now/>
"Select Cause & Gift Amount" and choose M. Jane Williams Professional Development Fund*

Please make checks payable to:

Association of Fundraising Professionals-Greater Philadelphia Chapter

Note check with: M. Jane Williams Professional Development Fund of the Philadelphia Foundation

Send to:

*AFP-Greater Philadelphia Chapter
c/o Association and Conference Group
637 Potomac Station #801
Leesburg, VA 20176
Attn: Valery Koontz, Executive Director*

About Jane. Jane was truly a legendary figure in the national fundraising community. Her career spanned more than five decades, achieving extraordinary success as a development leader for major institutions; as an acclaimed author in our field; and as a valued counselor for scores of nonprofits. In 1993, she was the first woman recognized as AFP-GPC's Fundraising Executive of the Year. Jane's most meaningful role may have been as a teacher and mentor to others.